

Chapter 32—Operation of General Partnerships

B. Rights Among Partners

The law provides partners with certain rights, which include their:

--right to use and possess partnership property for partnership purposes

--transferable interest in the partnership

--right to share in distributions

--right to participate in management

--right to choose associates, and

--enforcement rights.